XIV. On Navigating the relationship between her office and CECMs and Governor in providing legal counsel -

The nominee stated as follows, that -

- a) She will maintain a neutral position and provide proper legal counsel to all Departments and office of the Governor.
- b) Should wrangles arise between ministries/departments and the governor's office, she will stick to the law and not take sides in providing prudent legal counsel.

XV. As to her participation in Community Service and whether the nominee runs any charitable activities -

The nominee informed the committee that she does pro bono work with COVAW as indicated in her resume.

XVI. Regarding What residents can expect from her if appointed -

The nominee informed the Committee that her passion for justice will ensure she delivers justice for residents.

XVII. Whether she will cancel contracts entered into by her predecessors if illegally entered:

The nominee informed the Committee that she will void contracts signed before her appointment if illegalities were committed when signing, or seek to amend the terms – if contrary to the law.

XVIII. On what in the nominee's opinion constitutes a Conflict of interest

The nominee informed the Committee that a Conflict of interest may arise if one has interest in a particular matter while sitting to decide on the same.

XIX. Regarding court Cases Between Arms Of County Government And Lose Of Monies In Litigation: -

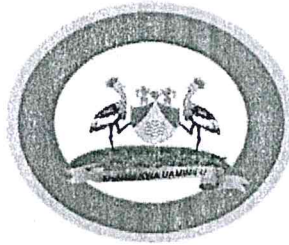

The nominee stated that she will ensure issues are resolved amicably to avoid costly litigation between the two arms of the County Government.

XX. On how she will work with the National government to ensure County laws do not conflict with National legislation, and that National government doesn't usurp powers of the county -

The nominee informed the Committee that she will liaise with the Attorney General to advise the National Government so issues are sorted out amicably between the two levels of government without much litigation as has been in the past.

XXI. On the payment of debts owed to the County by the National Government, and whether she will explore partnerships for the National government to take up certain functions as part of debt clearance -

The nominee stated that she would be open to consultations with the Attorney General on the best way to go about settling the debts owed to the County by the National government.

XXII. Regarding her perceptions of the County Assembly:

The nominee stated as follows, that;

- a. She believes the Assembly plays a critical role and deserves as much respect as possible.
- b. She wasn't aware of any bad public perceptions of the Nairobi City County Assembly, and would defend the County assembly if called upon after analyzing the facts if the Assembly were maligned.

XXIII. With respect to her Sources of Income, net worth and whether she is corrupt-

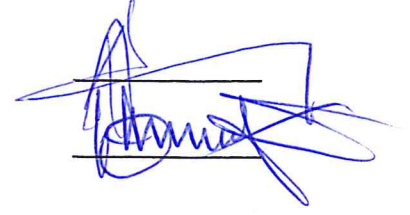

The nominee informed the Committee as follows, that –

- a) Her net worth is about Kshs50 million.
- b) She has never been involved in corruption or bribery.
- c) She has never been charged or indicted for any graft or corruption in all her years of service.

MIN. NO./SCA/003/2018: - A.O.B & ADJOURNMENT

- The Chairperson thanked Members for attending the vetting exercise and for their deliberations.
- She invited the nominees to make any concluding remarks, and depart at their own pleasure.
- There being no other business to transact, the Chairperson adjourned the meeting at ten minutes past One O'clock.
