enhance the reputation of Nairobi as a hub for sports excellence; DEEPLY CONCERNED THAT local teams face challenges in affording the annual registration fees required by the Football Kenya Federation (FKF) in order to effectively participate in tournaments. This Assembly therefore urges that the County Executive to; -

- a) Allocate funds in the County's sports budget to cover the annual FKF fees for registered football teams in Nairobi County;
- b) Develop criteria for allocation of funds to the teams which shall be informed by parameters such as the team's active participation in local tournaments, adherence to FKF regulations and engagement in youth development; and,
- c) Form a committee that will administer and monitor the use of funds and ensure transparency and equity.
