The Speaker conveyed the following communication;

“Honorable Members, the Parliament of Kenya each year undertakes the Parliamentary Week, an outreach programme to improve public engagement and participation in the democratic processes of Parliament and to promote Parliamentary democracy.

Hon. Members, part of the activities undertaken during the Parliamentary Week is the Sports Day. This year's Parliamentary Week is scheduled for 21st to 25th September 2015.

Hon. Members, the Nairobi County Assembly has been honored with an invitation to participate in this year's Parliamentary Week Sports day, to be held tomorrow Thursday, September 24th, 2015 at the Nyayo Stadium from 6.00am. Scheduled activities include Football (Men and Women), Netball, Tug of War (men and women) and Volley Ball (men and women).

Hon. Members, the County Assembly will therefore be sending its teams in the respective scheduled activities to represent us during the event. The teams will play against the Parliament of Kenya teams in each of the disciplines.

Hon. Members, indeed the event provides a great opportunity to not only showcase our various talents, but also network and share ideas with Members of the National Parliament.

Hon. Members, you will be required to dress in full Assembly Sports attire, in this case being your Assembly issued, branded T-shirts and an appropriate track suit or other sports attire.

Members of the respective teams without Assembly branded T-shirts are therefore encouraged to acquire the same through the Clerk's office. Accordingly, the Assembly Business Committee yesterday considered the request and resolved to invoke Standing Order 28 to adjourn the Thursday 24th September, 2015 sitting.
